2008 Silicon Valley Deloitte Technology Fast 50 Awards

Hosts:

Deloitte.

Dear Fast 50 Winner,

Congratulations on being named one of the fastest growing companies in Silicon Valley! Your company has demonstrated tremendous achievement and we are proud to share this evening with you.

The 2008 Technology Fast 50 Awards act as an industry benchmark signifying your company's accomplishment to shareholders, venture capitalists and industry analysts alike. This is a great way for your company to build on its eminence in the high-tech industry and we look forward to supporting your growth going forward.

As the hosts of the Silicon Valley Technology Fast 50, we again congratulate you and your company on its great success.

Sincerely,

Mark Jensen

About the Silicon Valley Technology Fast 50

The Silicon Valley Technology Fast 50 is a ranking of the fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications and life sciences companies in the Silicon Valley based on percentage fiscal year revenue growth over five years (2003-2007), indicating speed of growth—not current financial performance or profitability. This year, we are recognizing companies in the following categories:

- Billion Dollar Club
- Software and Information Technology
- Scientific & Medical Equipment and Biotechnology
- Internet, Media & Entertainment and Communication
- Rising Star

To be eligible for the Fast 50, a company must meet the following criteria:

- 1. Own proprietary intellectual property or proprietary technology that contributes to a significant portion of the company's operating revenues or devotes a significant proportion of revenues to research and development of technology. Using another companies' technology or intellectual property in a unique way does not qualify.
- 2. Meet minimum operating revenue requirements of at least $50,000 and $5,000,000 for fiscal year 2003 and 2007, respectively.
- 3. Be in business a minimum of five years.
- 4. Be headquartered within the San Francisco Bay Area.

The Billion Dollar Club

The Billion Dollar Club is new to this years' program and recognizes companies that have achieved $1 billion or more in revenue during fiscal year 2007 and have more than doubled in revenue growth, demonstrating that even large companies can remain nimble, posting impressive year-over-year growth.

On the Horizon: Rising Stars

The Technology Fast 50 also recognizes Silicon Valley's fastest growing young companies. These companies on the rise have met the same criteria as the Fast 50 but have been in business a minimum of three years and have revenues in only three or four years. Revenue growth is based over three years (2005-2007).

Quotes from the top:

VMWare, Inc.

"We are pleased to be recognized as a member of the Fast 50," said Paul Maritz, president and chief executive officer, VMware. "Our success stems from addressing a fundamental need of both business and government to do more with less. VMware virtualization has become a strategic platform for our customers by reducing hardware and operational costs and increasing efficiency, flexibility and effectiveness. Moving forward, we are building on our value proposition by broadening our platform into a virtual datacenter operating system for an enterprise cloud that is highly elastic, self-managing and self-healing. We are proud of our market and innovation leadership, and dedicated to continuing to deliver increasingly transformative value to our customers."

Pure Digital Technologies, Inc.

"Consumers have embraced Flip Video because our products deliver on the simple promise to make video fun, affordable and easy," said Jonathan Kaplan, Chairperson and CEO of Pure Digital Technologies. "We are delighted to be part of this year's Fast 50 and want to formally thank our employees, investors, and business partners."

MobiTV, Inc.

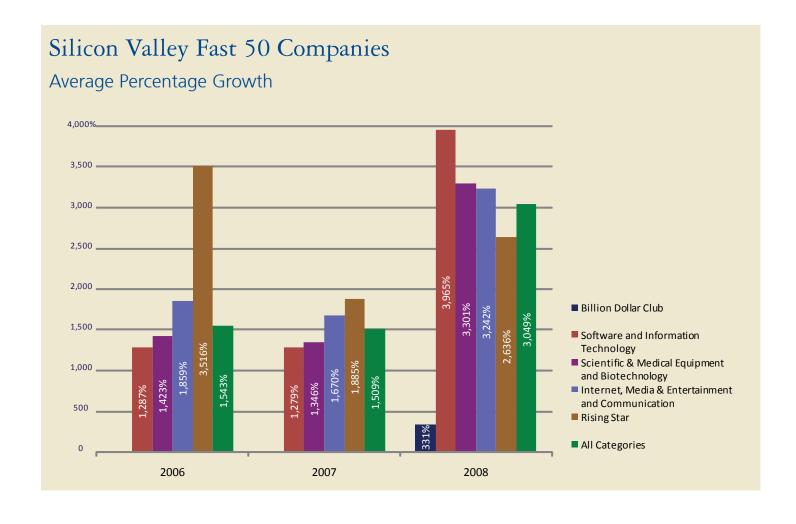

"We are honored to have been recognized as a one of Silicon Valley's Fast 50 winners this year and want to thank the sponsors of this iconic event as well as our loyal customers and our employees who's creativity and talent allow us to keep inventing stronger products and technologies every year," said Bruce Gilpin, Chief Operating Officer, MobiTV.

Affymax, Inc.

"As a biopharmaceutical development company, our value is driven by our ability to successfully shepherd our promising drug from inception through clinical trials and ultimately to FDA approval. Our success thus far has been due to the dedication and tenacity of our employees. Through their perseverance, Affymax is well positioned for growth which we believe will continue to build shareholder value" states Paul B. Cleveland, Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President, Corporate Development, Affymax. The Affymax team has been very successful in doing this and has achieved revenue growth of 19605% since 2003.

Splunk, Inc.

"We're proud that Splunk is being recognized as a 'Rising Star'," said Godfrey Sullivan, President and CEO, Splunk. "The rapid adoption of our disruptive Search for IT software, often called 'Google for the data center,' has resulted to date in over 750 customers and 50 partners worldwide, fueled by 175 talented employees. The immediate value Splunk customers derive from IT Search is the driving force behind our success and key to our continued growth."
